ABOUT SPEAKER

Dr. Ashvin P. Vibhakar, CFA, joined CFA Institute on September 1, 2007. Based in Hong Kong, Dr. Vibhakar is responsible for developing and implementing various operating strategies in the Asia Pacific region, including society relations, employer and university outreach, candidate recruitment and support, and member services.

Dr. Vibhakar was most recently Director of the Institute for Economic Advancement in the College of Business Administration at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock (UALR). His distinguished career included numerous academic roles including Dean of the College of Business Administration at UALR. He has held several board positions and is currently a member of CFA Institute, Financial Management Association, and the American Finance Association.

To assume this new position, Dr. Vibhakar resigned his position as an elected member of the Board of Governors of CFA Institute, a role in which he also served on committees for Audit and Risk and External Relations and Volunteer Involvement. He also served in a number of other volunteer capacities for CFA Institute, including a grader of CFA examinations for eleven years. He received his Ph.D. in Finance from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville, his MBA from Central Missouri State University, and his Bachelor of Electrical Engineering from M.S. University of Baroda, India.
